

Dan Wathen - President June, 1998, to July, 2000

1998 - 2000 Dan Wathen , MS, CSCS,*D, NSCA-CPT,*D, FNSCA

President Wathen says, "Editorship of NSCA Journal (Strength & Conditioning) was transferred from the NSCA executive director to a member (Dr. Jeff Chandler)

Dates for the NSCA annual conference were moved from June to July to facilitate lower airline and hotel costs for attendees.

Allen Press was chosen to publish the NSCA Journals.

NSCA certification exams were being given in over a dozen countries outside of the USA and had been or were being translated in Japanese, Spanish, and Chinese. Study materials had been or were being translated in the same languages."

1999, July - The SCJ Editorial Excellence Award is presented for the first time to Steven S. Plisk, MS, CSCS

1999, July - College Strength and Conditioning Professional of the Year Award is presented to Jim Kramer from the University of Northern Iowa.

1999, July - The High School S&C Professional of the Year was presented to Bud Bjornaraa of Apple Valley H.S.

1999, July - The JSCR Editorial Excellence Award is presented to Dr. E. Paul Roetert.

1999, July - The NSCA Presidents Award was presented to NSCA Certification Commission, Doug L. Keiner, Mike Stone, and John Taylor.

1999, July - The Outstanding Sport Scientist Award was presented to Dr. Carl M. Maresh

1998 - 2000 Dan Wathen, MS, CSCS,*D, NSCA-CPT,*D, FNSCA is NSCA President

President Dan Wathen

SCJ Editorial Excellence Award is presented for the First time

Dr. Avery Faigenbaum wins Investigator Award

1999, July - The Outstanding Investigator Award is presented to Dr. Avery Faigenbaum.

1999, July - NSCA purchased a building in Colorado Springs for its national headquarters. An open house and dedication for the new headquarters was held in July.

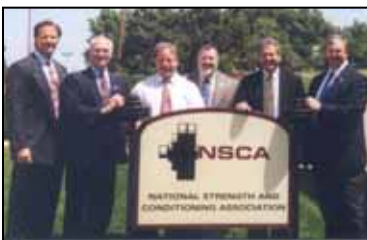

NSCA membership was near 20,000 with over 60% of that number holding one of the NSCA certifications (CSCS and/or NSCA-CPT).

1999, September - Executive Director Harvey Newton was replaced with Interim Director, Kim Dixon.

2000, March - A Strategic Planning and Leadership conference was under the direction of president elect Dr. Richard Borden in Colorado Springs. A new Mission Statement was developed during the meeting.

As the worldwide authority on strength and conditioning, we support and disseminate research-based knowledge and its practical application to improve athletic performance and fitness.

2000, March - NSCA assets exceeded $600,000.00.

NSCA Presidents Epley, Baechle, Bliss, Walthen, Chu, and Borden are present

NSCA President Dan Wathen and Founder Boyd Epley cut the ribbon at the NSCA's World Headquarters on Union Street in Colorado Springs

John F. Graham wins SCJ Award

Personal Trainer of the Year is presented for the First time

2000, July – Dr. Mike Stone is presented the Lifetime Achievement Award as of the top strength researchers in the nation.

2000, - The Outstanding Investigator Award is presented to Dr. Joseph P. Weir, Dr. Jay Robert Hoffman, and Dr. Travis Triplett-McBride.

2000, July - The SCJ Editorial Excellence Award is presented to John F. Graham.

2000, July - The NSCA Presidents Award was presented to NSCA National office staff, Don Chu, Patrick Hagerman, Mike Nitka, and Gary Shankman.

2000, July - The Outstanding Sport Scientist Award was presented to Dr. Stephen E. Always.

2000, - The Personal Trainer of the Year Award is presented for the first time to J. Henry Drought, MS, CSCS*D, NSCA-CPT, *D

Dr. Mike Stone is presented the Lifetime Achievement Award

President Dan Wathen hands over the Presidents Gavel to new President Richard A. Borden

2000, - A Standards and Guidelines Document for facilities and practitioners was published by the NSCA.

2000, - Many college strength coaches broke away from the NSCA and formed the College Strength and Conditioning Coaches Association.

2000, July - Boyd Epley is presented the Founders Award from the National Strength and Conditioning Association.

2000, June - College Strength and Conditioning Professional of the Year Award is presented to Roger Marandino from Brown University.

2000, July - The High School S&C Professional of the Year was presented to Patrick Mediate of Greenwich H.S.

2000, - The JSCR Editorial Excellence Award is presented to Jerry L. Mayhew and Dan Wathen.

2000, July - The Alvin Roy Award to John Grimek the first Mr. America in 1939 and 1940. John Grimek is the reason the Mr. America title can only be won once now. His physique was so exceptional in an age before steroids they were afraid he would win every year.

John Grimek – one of the greatest body builders of all-time is presented the Alvin Roy Award